Certified Capital Company Investment Credit (CAPCO) Repealed

Effective December 31, 2010, section 288.99(17), Florida Statutes (F.S.), repeals the CAPCO credit in its entirety. Based upon this change, the 2010 Insurance Premium Taxes and Fees return, due March 1, 2011, will be the final return in which an insurer may apply the CAPCO credit carryover.

Section 288.99, F.S. permitted insurers to claim up to 10% of their vested CAPCO premium tax credit per year beginning with premium tax filings for calendar year 2000 and ending with premium tax filings for calendar year 2009. For calendar year 2010, unused CAPCO credit may be claimed as a carryover subject to the limitations provided in section 288.99, F.S.
