

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA
CIVIL DIVISION

SEASONS 52 HOLDINGS, LLC,
a Florida limited liability company,

Plaintiff,

Case No: 2018-CA-013524

v.

Division:

RICK SINGH, as Property Appraiser;
SCOTT RANDOLPH as Tax Collector and
LEON M. BIEGALSKI as the Executive Director of the Florida Department of Revenue;

Defendants.

---

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, SEASONS 52 HOLDINGS, LLC, a Florida limited liability company, sues Defendants, RICK SINGH as Property Appraiser ("Appraiser"), SCOTT RANDOLPH as Tax Collector ("Collector"), and LEON M. BIEGALSKI ("Biegalski") as the Executive Director of the Florida Department of Revenue, and alleges:

1. This is an action to contest an ad valorem tax assessment for the tax year 2018 and this Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Chapter 194, Florida Statutes, and article V, section 5 and 20 of the Florida Constitution.
2. Plaintiff is a Florida limited liability company.
3. Appraiser is sued herein in his official capacity and is a necessary party to the action pursuant to section 194.181(2), Florida Statutes.

4. Collector is sued herein in his official capacity and is a necessary party to the action pursuant to section 194.181(3), Florida Statutes.

5. Defendant Biegalski is sued in his official capacity as Executive Director of the Florida Department of Revenue and is a necessary party to this action pursuant to section 194.181(5), Florida Statutes.

6. Plaintiff has performed all conditions precedent which are required to be performed by Plaintiff in establishing their rights to bring this action. Specifically, this action has been filed within the time period prescribed by section 194.171(2), Florida Statutes.

7. Plaintiff is the owner of certain tangible personal property used in connection with its Seasons 52 restaurant located in Orange County, Florida, identified by Appraiser as REG-125292, hereinafter referred to as the "Subject Property."

8. Appraiser estimated the Subject Property's just and assessed value for ad valorem purposes as follows:

Account No.	Just/ Assessed Value
REG-125292	$599,871

hereafter (the "assessment").

9. Plaintiff has paid the taxes which have been assessed in full, pursuant to section 194.171(3)(4), Florida Statutes. A copy of the receipt is attached hereto as Plaintiff's Exhibit "A."

10. Appraiser failed to comply with section 193.011, Florida Statutes, and professionally accepted appraisal practices in assessing the Subject Property.

11. The assessment does not represent just value of the Subject Property as of the lien date because it exceeds the market value and therefore violates article VII, section 4 of the Florida Constitution.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands that this Court take jurisdiction over this cause and the parties hereto; enter an order setting aside the assessment on the Subject Property as excessive; establish the proper assessment of the Subject Property in accordance with the Constitution of the State of Florida and section 193.011, Florida Statutes; direct the Collector to cancel the original bill and issue a new tax bill in said reassessed amount; and finally, to award Plaintiff its costs incurred in bringing this action pursuant to section 194.192, Florida Statutes, and award such other general relief as may be just and equitable.

_____
Robert E. V. Kelley, Jr.
Florida Bar No. 451230
HILL, WARD & HENDERSON, P.A.
101 E. Kennedy Boulevard, Suite 3700
Tampa, FL 33601
(813) 221-3900
(813) 221-2900 FAX
rob.kelley@hwhlaw.com
relitrevk@hwhlaw.com
Attorney for Plaintiff